NO HIGHER TAX IN PETERSBURG

Finance Committee of Council Decides to Let Liquor License Remain $125.

MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED

Nothing Has Been Heard from Mr. Daniel J. Beasley, Last Seen in Petersburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PHTERSBURG, VA., March 22.—In its work of framing the Rense tax ordinance for submission to the Counerdinance for submission to the Council, the city Finance Committee tonight, after considerable debate, decided not to change the liquer license tax. A resolutifien to raise the rate was offered, but a substitute) providing for no chango prevailed without any organized opposition. The present liquer license tax imposed by the city ter $125.

Interesting Report.

A most interesting report of the proceedings of the Virginia Confer-ence of Charities and Corrections, at ence of Constites and Corrections, active fits fifth annual session, held in this city May 22, 28 and 24, 1906, has just been published here, under the editorship of Dr. William Francis Drewry, Rev. Dr. J. M. Pilcher, Mr. Robers Gliam, Mr George B. Davis and Rev. T. Mastin, who compose the com-littee on publication. Dr. Drewry, the is the superintendent of the big prosident of the organization, to which office he was elected at the last session. In his preface to the report, Dr Drewry states that the conference will bold its next meeting in the fail of in a section of the State ful a meeting as was the one in Peters burg.

The organization of the sixth con-The organization of the sixth conference, is composed of representative men from all sections of the State, and of ladies of leading positions in charitable work. Richmond, Petersburg, Norfolk, Lynchburg, Roanoko, the University of Virginia and several other places are represented eral other places are represented among the officers and in the execu-tive council.

Mr. Beasley Still Missing. he mystery of the disappearance Daniel J. Beasley, a well known zen of Blackstone, who has not citizen of Blackstone, who has not been located since Thursday, March 7th, when he was in Pteeraburg visiting a married daughter, is attil unsolved. He was last seen in this city by a police officer, with whom he walked up High Street, about 7 o'clock on the evening of March 7th It is understood that since then not a word has been heard from him His family have been hoping that he had gone to Suffolk or Norfolk, but it seems that he has seen searched for in vain in both cities

Has Even Chance for Life.

Dr. J. M. Burke, of this city, who was called to Crowe yesterday to see J. K. Pond. the locomotive engineer injured in the railroad wreck at that place yesterday morning, says that Mr. Pond is suffering from concussion of the brain and a fracture of the left make, and has about an even chance for life. The injured man is a native of this city.

Rring Delimon Back.

of the brain and a fracture of the off milde, and has about an oven hance for life. The injured man is a ative of this city.

Bring Deltman Back.

Herman Deltman, alias W. J. Smith, the decamped from the room of his ost, E. F. Pettway, in this city early esterday morning, taking Mr. Pettway's valve as a souvenir of hospitality, will brought back in a few hours from ewport Nows, where he was arrested its morning on information telegraphed y Chief of Police Ragiand, of this city, he has sent Sergeant Stevens to bring he prisoner to Petersburg for trial, eltman, who is a stranger here, had sent taking his meals at Pettway's lunch-som on Bollingbrook Street, and was int by the latter to his room on Systome Street to spend the night. In the triy moraling the guest departed with trunk full of the host's clothes and arded the steamer Aurora for New-Thoews.

The Petersburg Medical Faculty held

Offered for $10 a Share.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHATHAM, VA., March 22.—At a meeting of the Pittsylvania County Fair Association, held in the counting-room force, President J. E. Lanier, Secretary Clyde and Treasurer Yeatts were appointed a committee to secure shelter and grounds in which to hold the fair, and report the probable cost of same at the next meeting, which will be at an early date. The fair will be at an early date. The fair will be held on the 19th and 21st of September. The committee now have in yiew two very suitable and the probable cost of same at the next meeting, which will be at an early date. The fair will be at an early date, and cost. The fair will be at an early date, and the probable cost of same at the next meeting, which will be at an early date. The fair will be held on the 19th and 21st of September. The committee now have in yiew two very suitable and porter the probable cost of same at the next meeting, which will be at an early date. The fair will be held on the 19th and 21st of September. The committee on where it will be held on the 19th and 21st of September. The committee of Septe Herman Deltiman, alias W. J. Smith, who decamped from the room of his host, E. F. Pettway, in this city early yesterday morning, taking Mr. Pettway's trunk as a souvent of hospitality, will be brought back in a few hours from kewport News, where he was arrested this morning on information telegraphed.

egular monthly meeting last night the reading and discussion of trea-s on medical and surgical subjects.

GETS BEQUEST.

Martha Washington Receives $10,000 from Mrs. Small's Estate.

$10,000 from Mrs. Small's Estate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
The laddles of the Mary Wushington Hospital Association, who organized and have impanged and maintained the Mary Wushington Hospital Association, who organized and have impanged over the bequest of $10,000 left to the Institution by Mrs. Mary G. Small, of Ballimore, who died in that city March 12th. Mrs. Small felt a great intorest in Fredericksburg, had a number of reintives here, and had previously made donations to the hospital amounting to about $2,000.

Judgo J. B. Mason, of this city, has cited a special term of King George Circuit Court for Tuesday, March 2th. George Scott, a negro, who assaulted two white men here, and was given a verdict of eighteen months in the poniteintary some time ago, was granted a new trial one technicality, and the second trial resulted in a verdict of eight months in the city fall. His counsel moved that the verdict is est aside, but the court fromptly refused. The course there were the verdict of with the court from puty refused. The course the wordict.

Martha Ball, an old colored woman of Atlas Mountains.

From Head to Heel

we sell everything that the modish man wears, Take Hats. We've every shape and shade in Derbics and Alpines that fashion pats on the back.

And-mark this well-you pay us only for the Hat, and nothing for a glittering label

$\text{-$\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{5}{5}$.}

Take Shoes. You'll find

here the latest and smartest metropolitan forms in the newest leathers—$3.50 to $5. Take heed. Our prices are high enough to pledge Quality and low enough to insure Economy.

Jacobs & Levy

While in have a look at our Easter Suit aggregation at King George county, has reached hor 100th birthday. She has a daughter living with her who is sighty years old, and a grand-daughter sixty years old. All of them are well known and highly respected in their community.

HAD FINE CHASE.

Mr. Charles Drewry Takes Out Mineola Pack.

Mineola Pack.

CENTRALIA, VA., Marca 23.—Charlie Drewry, owner of the "Mineola" pack of hounds, gave a fox-hunt in honor of Mr. Jumes M. Henry, of Brookneal, Va., last Thursday, Among those in the party were: Messrs, Geo. Whitmore, Lon Cox, Montgomery Jackson, Geo, Harrison, Joel Robertson and Jack Ruffin, of Petersburg: Clay Drewry and Pickett Lathron, of Richmond; the Misses Bryant, Miss Elberta Edgerton, Miss Helen Harrison and Miss Julia White, of Petersburg. The marty met at Point Rock, on the Appendance of the Misses Bryant, Miss Elberta City Point, losing the riders, but after about forty minutes they landed the fox in a marsh near James River. The second jump was about four miles west of Point Rock, and the hounds ran the fox for nearly three hours, finally landing him near Chester. The party enjoyed the chase very much, and are planning another to be taken. A police officer of Rocky Mount, N. C., to-day took William Smith, colored, from Chesterfield Jail, where he has been confined for six months for carrying concealed weapons, to Rocky Mount, where he will be tried for shooting another negro several months ago.

J. R. Land, for several years maners of "Cox and Pall" on James J. R. Land, for several years man-ager of "Cox and Dail," on James River, moved to Richmond this week on account of the owner, Mr. Keli, selling the farm.

PITTSYLVANIA FAIR.

Stock of the Association Will Be Offered for $10 a Share.

selected is regarded as a desirable one in every way.

SYRIAN STABS ANOTHER,

CAUSING INSTANT DEATH
ROANDKE, VA, March 22.—Moses Ferris and Sam Assid. Syrian merchants, got into a quarrel to-night, which ended in the former stabbing the latter in the breast, causing his death an hour later. Ferris fied.

ACCEPTS CALL.

Rev. Mr. Hedley Will Become

Rev. Mr. Hedley Will Become
Pastor of Reidsville Church,
DANVILLE, VA., March 23.—Rev.
William Hedley, pastor of the Lee Street Baptist Church, tendered his resignation at the Wednosday night
resignation at the Wednosday night
prayer-meeting sorvice, to take effect the first Sunday in June, Several weeks ago Mr. Hedley received a call to become pastor of the Baptist Church at Reidsville, N. C., which he has decided to accopt. He has been pastor of the church here since its organization five years ago. No official action has been taken on his resignation.

Judge Horsley Improving. [Special to The Times-Dispatch, 12.—A LYNGID-LIG, VA. March 12.—A blegram from Naples announces that udge John D. Horsley, of this city, recently ordered to Southern Europe by his physician, because of a sudden attack of heart trouble, is Improving stendily.

Judge Horsley is one of the foremost lawyers of the South, and the many large interests he represents, together with his wide social connection, have made lilm a host of friends, both within and without Virginia, who will welcome the good news of his promised apacty restoration to health, who say that the second in Naples with Judge Horsley.

ELECTS OFFICERS.

Contract Let for Structure in

Which to Make Aeronautic

Exhibit.

ATTORNEY TO LOOK INTO CASE

Woman Correspondent Asks

Governor to Pardon Young Man in Prison.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., March 22 .- The conract for the aeronautic exhibit building

loon and airship equipment, together with a German exhibit, in expensive

Word has been sent to them that ship

nent of the exhibits could be started

Parker Case.

Admiral Dewey Accepts.

The first acceptance of the invita-tions recently sent out by the divisior of ceremonies of the Jamestown Ex-

POND BETTER

Has Chance for Recovery-Many

Attend Young Brown's Funeral.

DEFEATS TRINITY. Lafayette University Wins from Carolinians by Close Score.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch, I)

DURHAM, N. C. March 22.—Trinity College was defeated this afternoon by Lafayette University, of Daston, Pa. The score was 4 to 3. The game between Lafayette and Trinity is always considered the best game of the season, and the one to-day was no exception to the rule.

GREAT STICK WORK.

Heavy Hitting on Part of W. and L. Was Feature of Game.

y April 15th.

Board of Trade Held Annual Meet-

Board of Trade Held Annual Meeting Last Evening.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

STAUNTON, VA., March 22.—The Board of Trade stockholders met last evening in the City Treasurer's office and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: C. R. Caldwell, president; Clarko Worthington, vice-president; Clarko Worthington, vice-president; Ind Board of Directors—W. W.
Putnam, V. L. Denny, Joseph Barknan,
L. G. Straus, H. C. Braxton, A. Loeb and H. L. Lang.

The committee having charge of the alterations in the City Hall for the new courtroom and vauit, have awarded the contract for the work to Mr. M.
B. Stoddard, of Shaunton, he being the lowest bidder.

Mr. and Birs. M. Summerfield and son, Jerome, left Thursday for Washington, Baitimore and New York, The latter place they will make their home.

tract for the aeronautic exhibit building at the exposition has been awarded to R. C. Strehlow & Company, builders and contractors. The building, which will be the first structure of its kind ever erected at an exposition, will be located on the corner of Powhatan and Bacon Streets, a central part of the grounds.

The building, 65x120, is to be of high construction, for the aeronautic equipment, much of which will be suspended from the celling. The bild which captured the contract was $10,500, and it includes the erection of the eight-foot Goley—Woods.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

GREENSBORO, N. C., March
Thursday night at 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. C. Woods,
No. 117 South Forbis Street, Miss Myrtle
Woods and Mr. Joseph Goley, of Petersburg, Va., were happily united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Paul J. Carraway. Only a few intimate friends of the family were present.
The bride is a most charming young lady, and has a host of friends, while the groom is a worthy and estimable young gentleman of Petersburg, Va. The couple left yesterday morning for a bridal trip to Richmond, where they will spend several days. They will reside in Petersburg. tured the contract was $10,500, and it includes the erection of the eight-foot fence to surround the building.

Work on the building started this morning, and it is assured that the building will be completed in time for the opening day, April 28th.

The beginning of work on this building is a great relief to New York aeronautic exhibitors who are holding their balloon and airship equipment, together

Andrews-Hill.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)
CHINCOTEAGUE, VA., March 22.—Mr., Louis Andrews and Miss Bertic Hill,
both residents of this place, were mar-Parker Case.

Commonwealth's Attorney John S. Tilton is in receipt of a letter from Governor Swanson, asking an investigation of the case of Fred R. Parker, who is now serving a sentence of six months in the city fall on two charges of larceny. The Governor states in his letter that he has received a petition from Dolly Kennedy Yancey, who Exposition press representative of the Akou Attraction, asking the pardon of Farker. readeness of this place, were mar-ried Wednesday evening, at $120 c'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hill. Rev. Mr. Ludese, paster of the Union Daptist Church, of-ficiated.

Salvation Army Work

In connection with the dosing of the Salvation Army Industrial Home, Captain Fowler amounces that he will continue to receive contributions of food, clothing and provisions and make weekly contributions among the poor.

OBITUARY.

Funeral of Charles Ellis.

The funeral of Mr. Charles Bills, who lied in Washington on Thursday, March list, will take place from Billups's untraking establishment at 10:30 o'clock his morning. The services will be held to the grave in Hollywood. of ceremonies of the Jamestown Exposition to the oepning ceremonies on April 26th was received by Secretary Shepperd this morning from Admiral George Dewey. The acceptance came through Lieutenant-Commander Spencer S. Wood, Admiral Deweys aide, who stated that the invitation was accepted by Admiral Dewey with much pleasure, Mr. Wood will accompany the admiral. Other acceptances are expected in each mail.

Mrs. Portia V. Langley. Mrs. Portia V. Langley, widow of Mr harles H. Langley, and mother of Mrs. harles G. Bosher, of this city, died yes rday morning in Norfolk at 9:30 o'clock

R. I. Gaulding. Mr. R. I. Gaulding died at 10 o'cloust night. The body will be taken eysville, Va., for burial, this morning.

Elkanah D. Harr.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, TENN., March 22.—Elkanah D. Harr died at his home, near Blountville, this county, on Monday night, in the eighty-fourth year of his Attend Young Brown's Funeral.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CREWE, VA., March 22.—Engineer
John Pond, who was so badly injured in the wreck yesterday, is still alive, and the doctors seem to think he has a fighting chance for life, He was taken to his home in the late afternoon perfectly unconscious, but durning the night there were short spells of consciousness, and to-day his condition is reported a shade better. There are two trained nurses with him.

Mr. T. Horace Brown, who was killed in the wrock on yesterday, was burled this afternoon in the Crewe cemetery.

burled this afternoon in the Crewe cemetery.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church, of which he was a member.

There are many expressions of grief at his untimely end, as he was a good man and popular with all. His young wife is prostrated with grief.

This was not his run, as the railroad men express it, but he took the place of Mr. Lewis Smithson, who was sick.

The track near the wreck has been cleared, and trains are running as usual. Confederacy under Colonel Abram Ful-kerson, of Bristol, and he and his brother, Adam Harr, were in the same company, and at Brewry's Bluff both were wounded, after having fought their way to the breastworks.

Mrs. S. F. Pilson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA. March 22.—The large auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church was filled with friend a and relatives of the late Mrs. Samuel P. Plison yesterday afternoon to do benor to her memory, The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. A. M.
Frazer, and Rev. Dr. W. N. Scott. Interment was made in Thornross Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs.
J. N. McFaland, J. A. Fulton, Samuel
Donald, W. W. King, S. F. Gilkoson,
C. K. Hoge, J. H. Blackley, W. P. MoFarland, J. M. Quaries, A. H. McCue, Henry Itutchinson, H. N. Tillman and Dr. J. B. Rawlings.

Funeral of Mr. Trimble

Funeral of Mr. Trimble.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

STAUNTON, VA., March 22.—The funeral over the remains of Mr. M. G.
Trimble, who died in Chitton Forge Thursday, arrived here to-day, and the funeral was hold this afternoon from the Staunton Methodist Episcopal Church. This gentleman was found dead in bed Thursday morning, and his dead in bed Thursday morning, and his death is attributed to heart trouble.
He was thirty-eight years old, and a native of Augusta county. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Katle Greaver.

Mrs. Rachel A. Hannon.

Mrs. Rachel A. Hannon.

MIS. Rather A. Framion.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, VA., March 22.—A tologram to day from Oxford, Ind.
announces the death of Mrs. Rachel A.
Harmon, daughter of the late Alner Bond, of this county, and sister of John L. Bond, of Winchester, She was sixty years of age, and is survived by one son and one daughter.

Mrs. Annie E. Gran.

Mrs. Annie E. Gran.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

STAUNTON. VA. March 22.—Mrs.
Annie E. Gran died at her home here Thursday morning after an illness of about seven weeks, aged eighty years.
Sho had many relatives in this section and comes from one of Virginia's oidcet and most respected families. The funeral took place this morning from Trinity Church; interment in Thornrose Cemetery.

DEATHS.

GAULDING.—Died. at 10 o'clock P.
M. yestorday, R. I. GAULDING.
Romains will be taken to Keysville. Va., for burial SATURDAY MORNING.

ANGLEY,—Died, in Ghent, Norrolk, Va. POHTIA V. LANGLEY, widow of Charles H. Langley, and mother of Mrs. Charles G. Hosher, of this city, March 22, 1907, at 9:30 A. M.

Puneral Notice.

PLLIS.—The funeral of CHARLES ELLIS, whose death occurred in Washington on Thursday, the 21st, will take place from Blitups's undertaking-rooms TO-DAY at 10130 A. M. Pall-bearers are requested to take notice. Service at the grave in Hollywood.

Pabet malt takes twice as long to make as other malts. This is why Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is richer in food-values -- more healthful, wholesome and delicious.

EASTER REGALS

The new Spring styles in Regals are ready for you to try on today. Every style a new one. And every style is in quarter-sizes!

gals is made of. It is our signed guarantee that money cannot buy better materials than are in those Regals you are trying on. Send for Style-Book tells you what your pair of Re-

Mall Orders Promptly Filled Largest retail shoe business in the world. Stores in principal cities from RICHMOND, 611 E. Broad St.

CAMPUS

FOR MEN AND WOMEN

BREAK BACKBONE

Sizes 1

General Manager Chamberlain, of Caraleigh Works, Says Men Are Returning to Work.

SEVERAL NEW ENTERPRISES

Corporation Commission Grants Number of New Charters. Approve Depot Plans.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March, 22,—General Manager J. R. Chamberlain says the backbone of the strike among the acidpit laborers at the Caraleign phosphate works is about broken, and that the men are going gack to work at the old wage scale of $1.10, instead of $1.35, demanded Superintendent Dye and the negro Carle Evans were both bound over to Superior Court last night for the affray which precipitated the strike Tuesday while Dye was ordaring
Evans from the premises of the mills.
One hundred and twenty-five men quit work, and about one-fourth of them have returned to work. A large number of new men have taken the place of strikers. The work of the plant is no longer seriously hindered because of the strike.

The State Hospital Commission recently are two negroes, who hastlly made their escape. On Wednesday the capture and destruction of two more stills was accomplished. They cut down some fifty stands of beer containing about eight thousand gallons, the city, was a most unexpected affair. The negro was bringing blockade whiskey to Durham, and when the officers arrived on the scene they noticed a large keg in his wagon, and upan investigation cound the same to contain ten gallons of whiskey. Warren was in his wagon eating dinner, and was placed under arrest before to had time to realize who the officors were. The negro was carried for

Approve Depot Plans,

The Corporation Commission has officially approved the plans for the Goldsbore $60,000 union depot, and it is understood that the work of construction will begin within a few weeks.

struction will begin within a few weeks.

Grand Secretary B. H. Woodell, of the North Carolina Grand Ledge of Odd Fellows, reports well-nigh phenominal progress in the growth of the order in this State. There was a gain of 1.800 members during 1905, and about 600 have been added since January 1st. A new lodge has Just been organized at Hillsbore and another will he instituted to-morrow night at Mebane. There are to be new lodges, within the next week or two, at Spruce Pine, Sulpher Springs, Rutherford and other places in the western section of the State.

The first train over the naw Raleigh and Pamileo Sound Rallroad, now a part of the Norfolk and Southern system, will roil into Raleigh next Monday, the run heing from Zebulen, about twenty miles. It is expected that the train will be running as far as Wilson early in the summer, and later through to Washington and other Eastern connections of the Norfolk and Southern system. It will be some time before the terminals here will be comploted, and in the meantime the trains will stop at Cleveland Street, in Glenwood

DESTROYING BOOZE.

North Carolina Corn Variety Has Been Faring Badly of Late. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DURHAM, N. C., March 22.—The syenue officers in Durham county havo revenue officers in Durham county have made a record during the past few days that has not been excelled for some time past in the destruction of blockade stills. Monday night the officers succeeded in destroying a copper of one hundred gallons' capacity, and on the next day, within one mile of the first still, destroyed another of sixty gallons' capacity. On the latter occasion the officers made the raid while the still was in operation, but falled to capture two negroes, who hastly upan investigation found the same to contain ten gallons of whiskey. Warren was in his wagon eating dinner, and was placed under arrest before he had time to realize who the officers were. The negro was carried before the United States commissioner ber of new men have taken the place of strikers. The work of the plant is no longer seriously, hindered because of strikers. The work of the plant is no longer seriously, hindered because of the strike optical Commission recently appointed by Governor Glorn under the provisions of the Bickett act for the earc of mental defectives will meet in the Governor's office well will meet the commission will of organizing. The commission will have the expending of $15,000 a year for four years in enlarging the State hospitals for the inane, and establish in grotning of the state of the st

But None Seriously.

[Especial to The Times-Dispatch.]

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., March. 22.—
The Payatteville and Sumter Shootly train on the Atlante Coast Line Rail; road, leaving here at 4:35 o'clock this morning, was wrecked at 4:57 A. M. at Parkton, N. C. Several persons were more or less injured, as follows: George Boll, mail clerk, cut in head and bruised; Conductor York, injured in head; Grimsley, injured in head; Hatchell Servear, bruises on body. The Shoofly took the usual track at Parkton and Engineer Clark, right afterwards, crashed into the rear end of a work train, the engine plowing into the rear work car, which telescoped the shanty car. Why the work train was on this track with no lights displayed is being invostigated. Engineer Stark and his froman stock to their posts and, although the engine was badly wrecked, they escaped with only slight injuries.

much pleased to have this genial and much piensed to have this gentil the scholarly gentleman in their inidst. C. J. Williams, contractor, who left Oxford several weeks ago, leaving a number of debts behind, was arrested at High Point Monday and brought back by Policeman L. T. Smith, and lodged in jail.

Sizes

Strikes Dynamite With Pick.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch,) BANDANA, N. C., March 22.—A very peculiar and possibly serious accident occurred here yesterday. Joe Caesar, an occurred here yesterday. Joe Caesar, an Italian laborer, while working in a cut on the S. and W. Railroad, struck a stick of dynamite with his pick. The dynamite exploded, and the accident will likely cost him both eyes. The presence of the dynamite in the dirt cannot be accounted for unless it was a stick which had falled to explode in a binar and was covered by the dirt. No one else was in order.

Will Reside in Greensboro.

OXFORD-CAMBRIDGE

Annual Games at London At-

Annual Games at London Attracted Big Crowds.

London, March 22.—The annual Oxfor Cambridge field sports took place, at the Queen's Club here this afternoon in spring like weather and with a big crowd present Oxford had an casy victor. No fewer than seven Rhodes scholars were among the Oxford had an casy victor. No fewer than seven Rhodes scholars were among the Oxford Dakota, in the long and high Jumps, both of which he won last year, Albert M. Bievena, of Yale, in the hammer throw, for which hadso competed in 1998 W. B. Schutt, of Cernell, in the half-mile run, which ha just failed to capture in 1898 and W. Thayen, of Harvard, who was in the second string of Oxford's hammer throwers.

Dr. Gravatt May Kun,

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BOWLING GRIEDN, VA., March 22.—

Dr. Churles N. Gravatt, of Port Royal;

to be in gurged by his many friends to be a candidate for the Senate in this district. Dr. Gravatt is a retired surgeon of the United States Navy, and is a man of broad knowledge.

Dr. Gravatt has not yet consented for his name to go before the beople

as a candidate, but says while it would greatly inconvenience, him, yet if the people desire his services he is willing to stand for election.

Twenty-eight years experience
—our own seed farms, trial grounds—and large warehouse capacity give us an equipment that is unsurpassed anywhere for supplying the best seeds obtainable, Our trade in seeds both for the Garden and Farm

s one of the largest in this country,
We are headquarters for Grass and Clover Seeds, Seed
Oats, Seed Potatoes, Cow Peas, Sola Beans and other Farm Seeds,

Wood's Descriptive Catalage stree fuller and more complete in the institution bout both Garden and Farm heads that any other similar publication issued in this country. Mailed free on request. Write for it.

T. W. Wood & Sons, Sections.

RICHMOND, - VA.

Sunday Times-Dispatch

These are but two of the many features of the

From Other Shores

Frank G. Carpenter, in his letter to be printed to-morrow, tells about the Kabyles, the oldest white race of the world, and their homes in the cism of missions which is rampant in the port

William T. Ellis, who is studying mission work in the Far East, writes this week about the criti-